

Violations Listed In Traffic

SACRAMENTO — A noted increase in traffic violations by commercial vehicle drivers has made it necessary for the California Highway Patrol to emphasize increased enforcement effort.

Ten violations by commercial drivers were singled out by Patrol Commissioner B. R. Caldwell.

1. Excessive speed.
2. Excessive speed on downhill grades.
3. Following too closely.
4. Failure to maintain 500 feet intervals between commercial vehicles.
5. Failure to complete passing movements on uphill grades within the required one-quarter mile.
6. Exceeding limitations on driving hours.
7. Defective brake equipment.
8. Inadequate or improperly connected safety chains.
9. Defective or inadequate mufflers and exhaust systems.
10. Lack of vehicle registration and incomplete or incorrect vehicle registration.

LOCAL PEOPLE HONORED

Community leaders who participated in the Hope Sunday drive, benefiting the City of Hope, were honored this week at the "awards reception" at the Ambassador hotel.

Louis Tabak, installed last week as president of the City of Hope, lauded the volunteer workers for the $100,000 raised in Southern California communities during the June month door-to-door solicitation.

Pointing out that this "record sum" is already being used to help support the three-point program of patient care, research and postgraduate medical education at the Medical Center, Tabak told the volunteers:

"Although approaching the half-century mark of service to others, the City of Hope has never presented a bill to anyone. You have helped make this remarkable record of humanitarian achievement possible."

Torrance contributions totaled $4000. Local volunteer leaders receiving awards were:

Mrs. John Stoddard, 3209 Antonia, chairman; Mrs. Walter West, 2034 Reynosa Dr., co-chairman; Dr. Ellyn Thill, 3310 Primm Way, and Dr. Kurt T. Shery, 1104 Sartori, captain.
